

New Mathematics and New Physics

New Mathematics

Existing Mathematics lacks one main Axiom – Axiom of God Existence.

Riemann Hypothesis is Axiom of God. Hence it is True.

There exists New Mathematics based on this new Axiom.

The main consequence is that $P = NP$.

New Physics

There is only Information, No Time and Matter exist for God. Time and Matter exist only in Human Conscience.

Hence New Physics describes only Human Conscience and other life and Nature forms visible for Humans. The easiest part is to start with own conscience, i.e. Human conscience.

As far as it is known, Human Conscience is divided into three parts: Emotional (created by outside circumstances and intellect), Intellect (created by person itself and by God), God (given by God). They can be shown as circles included in each other (see below).

Since we speak in terms of New Mathematics, Human conscience is a solution of Time-dependent Schrödinger equation (general)

$$i\hbar \frac{\partial}{\partial t} \Psi = \hat{H} \Psi$$

i.e. Wave function. It is depicted schematically below as three layered Circles inside each other. God conscience is a Wave function itself.

There are different Superposition types of God and Human Wave functions.

They are depicted below by the means of colored God Wave functions falling into Human Wave function: God Wave function is outside Human conscience (Red), God Wave function falls into Human Conscience Emotional part (Green), God Wave function falls into Human Intellect Conscience (Blue) and Pink one – when God Wave function makes a superposition with Human God conscience.

Human Conscience starts to exist independently of Time and Matter when Superposition reaches Pink Level.
